

CORE Conservation
Outdoor Recreation
Education
British Columbia Hunter Safety

Hunting credentials prove you are qualified to hunt in B.C. They are displayed on your Fish & Wildlife ID (FWID) profile, and show you have successfully completed CORE hunter safety training. You will need this to purchase hunting licenses.

1

Take the CORE course

in person with a certified CORE examiner or self study through the BCWF Online CORE course or the CORE manual

2

Take and pass the CORE exams

with a certified CORE examiner

3

Submit your test results to receive your CORE graduation certificate

Mail or deliver to the B.C. Wildlife Federation Office

4

Use your CORE certificate to apply for your FWID

in-person from Service BC or FrontCounter BC, or at BC Hunting Online

5

Buy hunting licenses

To possess or purchase firearms, you need to take the Canadian Firearms Safety Course and apply for a Possession and Acquisition License (PAL) through the Canadian Firearms Program/RCMP.