

LEADERSHIP

Leaders are present in every aspect of our world. One place where we really need leaders now is our environment! This series of lessons focuses on basic leadership skills and how to apply it in order to become an environmental leader.

In these seminars, participants will explore:

- Intro to Leadership: Learn the basics of what it means to be a leader and get on your way to becoming an environmental leader!
- Communication: It truly is key! We all communicate differently, and this lesson will teach you how to improve your unique communication skills to become a better leader.
- Intro to Project Management: A great leader needs a great team to match! This lesson will teach you the skills you need to build an effective and strong team.

Age:
All

Format:
Online OR
In-person

Big Ideas

Career Education 2/3:

Effective collaboration relies on clear, respectful communication

Career Education 4/5:

Leadership requires listening to and respecting the ideas of others

Career Education 6/7:

Practicing respectful, ethical, inclusive behaviour prepares us for the workplace

Curricular Competencies

Career Education

- Recognize their personal preferences, skills, strengths, and abilities and connect them to possible career choices
- Demonstrate respect, collaboration, and inclusivity in working with others to solve problems
- Demonstrate leadership skills through collaborative activities in the school and community
- Apply decision-making strategies to a life, work, or community problem and adjust the strategies to adapt to new situations

Core Competencies

- Focusing on intent and purpose
- Supporting group interactions

- Evaluating and developing
- Reflecting and assessing

- Self-regulating
- Contributing to community and caring for the environment