

About the B.C. Wildlife Federation

For nearly 75 years, the B.C. Wildlife Federation (BCWF) has been at the forefront of wildlife conservation, habitat restoration, and outdoor education in British Columbia. Our mission is to protect, enhance, and promote the wise use of the environment to benefit present and future generations.

Our origins date back to the 1890s when volunteer conservationists established fish and game protective associations that formed the basis of some of our current member clubs. The BCWF membership is made up of 43,000 outdoor enthusiasts from ten regions of the province, who hunt, fish, camp, hike, and spend time outside with their families. There are one hundred BCWF-affiliated fish and game protective associations and rod and gun clubs, making up about 80 percent of the total membership.

Event Details

In this role, two volunteers will proudly represent the B.C. Wildlife Federation at outreach events, serving as the public face of the organization. Meanwhile, the Engagement Coordinator will manage event logistics and coordination behind the scenes.

Requirements

- Have reliable transportation to and from the event locations
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong organizational and leadership skills
- Passion for the B.C. Wildlife Federation's Mission
- Must have a valid First Aid certification (OFA Level 1 or higher)

Time Commitment

Time commitment depends on the number and type of outreach events available. Monthly hours typically range from 8 to 20, with higher involvement expected during the spring and summer seasons.

Volunteer Benefits

- Gain valuable experience in a nonprofit setting
- Opportunity to make a meaningful impact in the community
- Professional development and training opportunities
